Re: United States v George George
Cr. 02-1369 (FB)

Dear Judge Block:

Pursuant to the rules and requirements of the CJA Plan for Representation for the Eastern District of New York, I write ex parte to notify you in your roles as supervising CJA Judge and as the District Judge who sentenced Mr. George, that Mr. George has requested that I act as his retained post-sentence counsel in filing a request seeking early discharge from the term of supervised release that your Honor imposed on January 6, 2004.

When Mr. George requested that I represent him, I informed him that I would seek permission to represent him as CJA counsel, but that I might be disqualified from acting in any capacity because he offered to pay a modest fee. (He asserts that he has been working as a deli meat salesman in California since his release from confinement and earns approximately $24,000 per year at this time). I told him that I would seek a ruling from the Court because my obligation to this Court as a CJA panel lawyer unequivocally required that I first disclose to the Court Mr. George's changed circumstances and his offer to retain me.

Thank you for your guidance in this matter.

Very truly yours,

David H. Weiss, Esq.
